RANSOM SPIRITS

525 NE 3rd Street • 503-472-2493
www.ransomsprits.com
Open Tuesday - Sunday 11am - 7pm

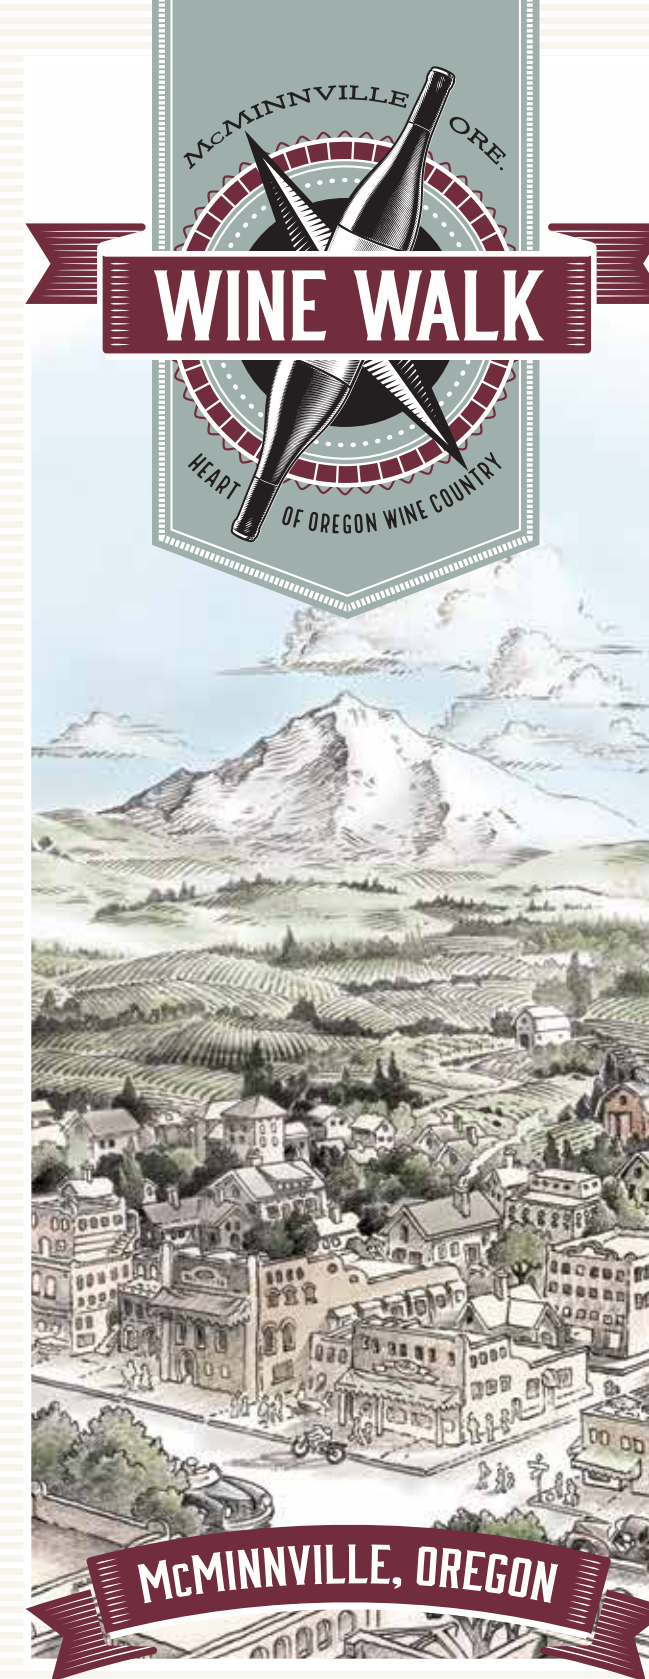

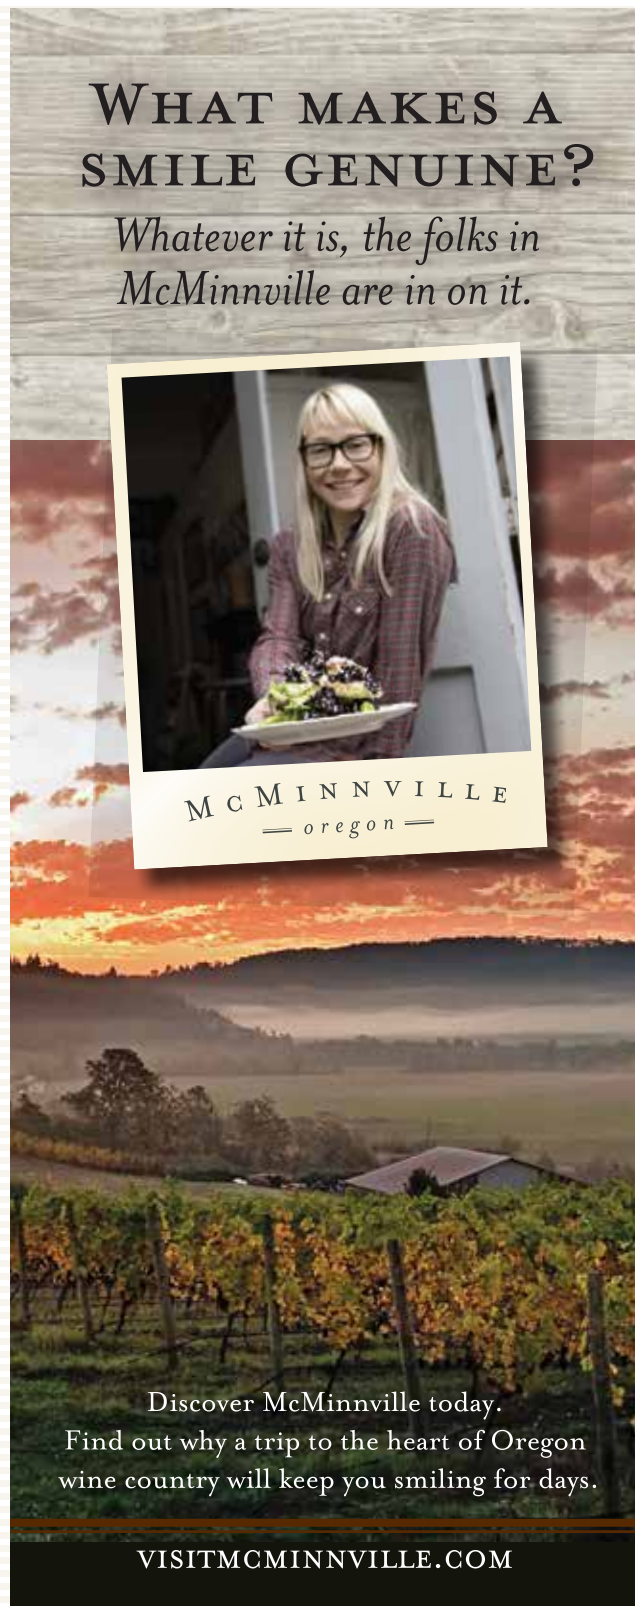

Spirits distilled in a hand-hammered, direct-fired French alembic pot still, making all of the selective cuts by taste and smell. This labor intensive, traditional method retains greater aromatic intensity and body. Base wort is mashed and fermented on site weekly in small batches. Taste wines, spirits, or signature cocktails featuring our whiskeys, gin, vodka or other premium spirits.

On McMinnville's main street, Hotel Oregon strikes an inviting pose – as it has since 1905. Taste a flight of wine, beer or spirits in the main floor Pub, a classic cocktail at the Carter the Great Bar, live music at the Cellar Bar or a breathtaking wine country view from our Rooftop Bar.

IN THE HEART OF OREGON WINE COUNTRY, MCMINNVILLE OFFERS THE BEST OF EVERYTHING.

Chic shops and award-winning restaurants, green rolling hills at its doorstep, vineyards as far as the eye can see, and inviting tasting rooms pouring the region's best wines.

WHEN WE SAY BEST, WE MEAN IT.

The Willamette Valley is Oregon's leading wine region, recognized as one of the top Pinot Noir producing areas in the world. At last count, home to nearly 700 vineyards and over 500 wineries – with more springing up each year.

THERE'S NO NEED TO HEAD OUT OF TOWN TO TASTE THESE LAUDED LABELS.

McMinnville's historic downtown is easy to explore on foot, strolling and tasting your way through an astounding variety of wines – from award-winning Pinot Noir, to big, bold reds, Pinot Gris, Chardonnay and even a few wines with fizz.

WITH SO MUCH TO EXPLORE,
CONSIDER STAYING OVERNIGHT WITH US!

We invite you to take the McMinnville Wine Walk and sample flights of wines, purchase by the glass or by the bottle with knowledgeable and friendly tasting room staff as your guide.

Hear the stories behind the wines, going back to Yamhill Valley and The Eyrie Vineyard's pioneering Pinot Noirs. And with so much to discover, lodging options from a posh flat to a charming B & B are available if you choose to linger another day or two.

STROLL AND SAVOR THE CHARM OF HISTORIC MCMINNVILLE
– THE SMALL TOWN KNOWN FOR ITS FINE WINES.

Enjoy the authentic character and charm of McMinnville via its historic buildings; a 1926 power plant is now home to Elizabeth Chambers Cellar and the distinctive red building that once housed the Willamette Valley Walnut Co. is where you'll now find Walnut City WineWorks.

You may even find a winemaker or two behind the bar, pouring tastes and sharing a bit of the magic that goes in to making your favorite wine. Several tasting rooms offer small plates and nibbles to pair with the featured wines; while patios and inviting outdoor spaces allow you to relax and enjoy your day in the heart of Oregon Wine Country.

Looking for something other than wine? You'll also find artisan brewers offering up ales, German and Czech-style beers, and purveyors of traditionally distilled spirits.

NEED MORE INCENTIVE TO MAKE THE ROUNDS?

Visit 10 wine tasting rooms on the map, getting your booklet stamped along the way and receive a 33 Book Co. tasting notes journal (made in Portland), along with a Wine Walk sticker and pen.

Visit 15 wine tasting rooms on the map and receive the gift above and a commemorative Wine Walk GoVino wine glass. Gather stamps at all five craft beverage stops, in addition to the tiers above, and earn a bonus prize!

Prize Pick Up ★ Once you've collected 10 (or more) stamps, claim your prize at the Evergreen Aviation Museum visitor's desk, located at 500 NE Captain Michael King Smith Way, McMinnville.
